

CANDLELIGHT VIGIL

for

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH

Join Cape Cod PATH (People Against Trafficking Humans) to recognize 25 million people currently enslaved in human trafficking, which exists everywhere across the globe, including on Cape Cod

Remarks by: Janice Hank, Chair, Cape Cod PATH; Katie Parache, Barnstable Police Officer; Rev. Dr. Kristen Harper; Pastor Jonathan Singer.
Music by Digney Fignus

*Lawn of the First Baptist Church,
486 Main Street, Hyannis
(event moved inside if inclement weather)*

Saturday, January 12, 2019

4:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

All Are Welcome

www.capecodpath.org or email info.capecodpath@gmail.com