

CANDLELIGHT VIGIL

for

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH

Join Cape Cod PATH (People Against Trafficking Humans) to recognize 30 million people currently enslaved in human trafficking, which exists everywhere across the globe, including on Cape Cod

Remarks by: Janice Hank, Chairperson, Cape Cod PATH
Officer Katie Parache; Pastor Catherine Boyle, Survivor;
Rev. Angela Menke-Ballou; and Rev. Pamela Wannie
Music by Rev. Pamela Wannie, The Ukeladies and Digney Fignus

*First Baptist Church,
486 Main Street, Hyannis
Saturday, January 11, 2020
4:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.
All Are Welcome*

www.capecodpath.org or email info.capecodpath@gmail.com